The title page of our dictionary is shown below.

There is more news regarding the above which will be put online shortly.

Meanwhile there is also an invitation to attend language training and workshops / seminars at the University of Oregon, USA. This time we (Ekegusii Encyclopedic Projects) have been selected to present papers in conjunction with others from Australia, the Americas and possibly Europe.

Kennedy M. Bosire, Project Director

Mrs. Gladys Kwamboka Machogu, Project Coordinator

On the next page I am adding two more pictures to give a flavour of our work, of interviewing 'in the field':

Above: old technology, below: new technology.
